

Thames hospice

Volunteer Role Description

Role: Events Crew

Location: Thames Hospice or out in the community

Hours: Ad hoc

Length of commitment: Ad hoc

Volunteer Manager: Amie Carter, Community & Events Fundraising Assistant

Purpose of role

The Fundraising events we hold throughout the year help to raise vital funds for the Hospice to be able to support as many local people with life-limiting conditions and their families as possible. Our events range from the Open Water Swim Challenge and the Sunflower Walk to Christmas Carol concerts and the Santa Dash. We often also require volunteers to support at community held events in aid of the Hospice.

Main tasks

- Depending on the event you could be marshalling routes or car parks, helping on the registration desk, handing out medals or refreshments, assisting with raffles or cash collections, setting up or clearing down.

Training and support

- Full briefing
- Support before and while you're helping out

Special conditions

- Over 18

Knowledge, skills and abilities required

- Passion for the Hospice
- Be outgoing and personable
- Enthusiastic and willing to get involved
- Be reliable
- Sometimes you may be required to take donations with a contactless machine
