Volunteer Role Description

Role:	Lottery Ambassador
Location:	Various: Bray Lake, Thames Hospice Events and Partner Events
Hours:	Flexible
Volunteer Manager:	Jim Curry, Campaigns Manager

The Thames Hospice Weekly Lottery is a key fundraising activity for the Hospice helping raise vital funds to provide care for patients in and around the community. The Lottery has over 18,000 lines all of which stand a chance of winning the weekly top prize of £1,000 and the rollover prize which can reach a massive £10,000.

Purpose of role

We are looking to build a team of ambassadors who can help the Fundraising Team increase awareness of the Thames Hospice Weekly Lottery and get more people playing.

Main tasks

- Setting up and staffing the promotional lottery stand at;
 - Thames Hospice Events
 - Thames Hospice Partner Events
 - Local Community Events
- Distributing lottery leaflets to event attendees and general public.
- Guiding interested people through the sign up process via an iPad stand.
- Answering questions about the lottery – how it works, chances of winning, allocation of funds, sign up methods
- Recording information, feedback and leads for follow up purposes to the Fundraising Team.

Training and Support

- Full training given regarding Gambling Commission regulations.
- Training provided by Fundraising Team on use of tablet set up – very easy!
- Support on hand from Fundraising Team

Special conditions

- Full UK driving license and access to own vehicle would be desirable.
- Need to be available on occasional weekends and evenings
- Comfortable working outside at times

Knowledge, skills and abilities required

- Good people skills
- Friendly and approachable
- Motivated and professional

Important note: This is not a cold-sales role. The people you meet will be Thames Hospice supporters or aware of the good services we offer. There is no target on sign ups.
